

Father, today I thank You for sending Jesus who left His place in heaven for you and humbled himself in obedience to You to do Your will. And that by doing so, He took away the first covenant and established the second so that by it I have been sanctified through His body that was offered up as a pleasing sacrifice for the forgiveness of my sins once and for all.

Thank You that after He had offered one sacrifice for sins forever, He sat down at Your right hand and is to this day, waiting till His enemies are made His footstool.

Thank You that through His one offering He has perfected forever me and my fellow brothers and sisters who are being sanctified.

Thank You that the Holy Spirit my Helper, witnesses to me that You have put Your laws in my heart and written them in my mind and have remembered my sins and lawless deeds no more.

Today I enter in with reverent boldness to Your holiest place by the blood of Jesus and draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith.

My heart is sprinkled from an evil conscience and my body washed with pure water by a new and living way which You consecrated for me, through the veil which is Jesus' flesh.

I thank You that He is the High Priest over me and all of Your house and I will hold fast to my confession of my hope without wavering because You have promised and You are faithful to keep your promises.

Father, I will consider my brothers and sisters in order to stir up love and good works and will not forsake the assembling of myself with other believers. help me not to make a habit of neglecting this but instead to exhort my brothers and sisters more and more as I see the Day of our redemption approaching.

Jesus, help me not to sin willfully, help me not to trample the Son of God underfoot nor treat the blood of the covenant by which I was sanctified as a common thing. Lord Jesus, keep me from insulting the Spirit of Grace and falling into Your hands of judgment.

Today I will recall the former days after being illuminated and not cast away my confidence which has great reward and realize that I have need of endurance so that after doing Your will, I may receive the promise.

Father, help me not to be counted with those who would draw back to perdition for I know Your soul does not have pleasure in such but instead grant me the grace to be of those who believe to the saving of my soul.

Praying Through Hebrews 10

The Just shall live by faith, therefore I put my faith in the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. By this faith, I obtain with my elders a good testimony and understand that things which are seen were not made of things which are visible.
